

THE INKERMAN GROUP

PRESS RELEASE

THE INKERMAN GROUP BUCKS THE TREND IN CREDIT CRUNCH AND ANNOUNCES NEW GROWTH FOR ITS INVESTIGATIONS TEAM

06 JULY 2009, THE INKERMAN GROUP has announced that its investigations work continues to grow in spite of the current economic climate and that it has appointed Dave Lowe to its in-house investigations team. Lowe joins as a specialist investigator and his appointment comes as a response to the increasing demand for investigations work.

Lowe's impressive career includes over 15 years in the Police, serving in both the Kent and Greater Manchester forces and more recently for a number of years in the commercial sector and was responsible for the delivery of specialist investigations, due diligence intelligence and security services for clients worldwide, including blue-chip companies. Lowe is a Member of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners and holds the Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) designation. He brings extensive experience in all aspects of investigations work both in the UK and globally, including those of a more complex and cross-jurisdictional nature.

He joins The Inkerman Group at an important time as the Company's investigations team has continued to secure an increasing amount of investigations work and will bring an additional level of expertise and diversity.

Gerald Moor, CEO of The Inkerman Group, is pleased that Lowe agreed to join the Company. He explains "We are very pleased that Dave has joined the team – he brings an already proven record in investigations work and is extremely experienced both internationally and nationally; he has an excellent reputation in the security industry. He will increase The Inkerman Group's presence in this important area of the business and our clients will undoubtedly benefit from the skills, investigative insight and experience which he has brought with him."
