THE INKERMAN GROUP - APPOINTED AS SCREENING PARTNER BY THE SECURITY INSTITUTE

The Inkerman Group has been appointed by The Security Institute as its membership screening and vetting partner. The successful appointment comes following a competitive tender process and resulting in The Inkerman Group now providing security screening services for The Security Institute (Syl) members and its staff.

The Inkerman Group has been successfully delivering screening services for a number of years and for a broad range of clients and organisations, in both the private and public sector - on an international basis and throughout the UK. Screening services are bespoke to each client's specific requirements and The Inkerman Group provides the full range of services available, including to due diligence levels.

This appointment by The Security Institute is both an important and prestigious one for the company. Gerald Moor, CEO of The Inkerman Group is delighted with the achievement, commenting on this new partnership he says "The Inkerman Group is delighted to have been appointed as The Security Institute's screening provider and we are looking forward to a long and productive partnership together. We have been delivering screening services for many years – a business which has continued to grow and has led to a wide range of clients in both the public, commercial and private sectors. Being successful in securing this appointment is hugely important to us as it recognises the expected high standards required of our service delivery and we are very excited at the prospect of working with the team at The Security Institute."

Emma Shaw, Chairman of the Security Institute comments, 'We are absolutely delighted to welcome the Inkerman Partnership on board. Membership screening is vital to our professionalism and underpins the appropriate recruitment and validation of our members. Adopting the recognised British Standard in security screening ensures that we are able to take a balanced, rounded and accurate view of a prospective individual's background when applying for membership of the Security Institute or the Register of Chartered Security Professionals.'
